Dear Shareholders,

I want to take a moment to congratulate everyone on the exciting success we have ahead of us. Beginning Monday, October 20th, I will be reaching out to each of you individually to discuss our next steps in detail.

During these meetings, I will provide a complete overview of our operations moving forward, including dividend distribution timelines and the anticipated schedule for our stock's public offering. It's essential that I speak with each of you personally so that we all share a clear understanding of our direction and can finalize your new agreements with our company.

This process will take several weeks to complete, and I appreciate your patience as I work through these important conversations. Please expect a call from me soon.

All appointments will be scheduled Monday through Friday, between 9:00 AM and 5:00 PM CST.

We are extremely excited about what lies ahead, and I'm confident you will share our enthusiasm once we connect.

I look forward to speaking with each of you soon.
